AFI14-104, 1 November 1993, is supplemented as follows and applies to all AFSPC Intelligence personnel, assigned reservists, NAF, Wing, and Unit Intelligence personnel. It does not apply to Air Force Reserve nor Air National Guard units.

Headquarters AFSPC/IN will implement and administer the Intelligence Oversight (IO) program for AFSPC NAF, Wing and Unit Intelligence personnel.

Within 30 days of arrival at station, all full-time intelligence and assigned reserve personnel will read, sign and send a copy of the Intelligence Oversight Program (IOP) training attachment to HQ AFSPC/IN IO monitor.

Unit personnel performing additional duty intelligence functions will read the Intelligence Oversight Program (IOP) training attachment for awareness.

All AFSPC intelligence personnel will read the AFSPC/IN Unit Support Newsletter for refresher training.

All questions and reports on the IOP will be directed to the HQ AFSPC/IN IO monitor.

Each NAF, Wing and Unit with a full-time intelligence function will maintain copies of IOP instructions as listed in AFI90-201, attachment 7, 1 July 1994.

Attachment 2INTELLIGENCE OVERSIGHT (IO) PROGRAM (ADDED)

A2.1. IAW AFI 14-104, Conduct of Intelligence Activities: The Air Force IO program is designed to ensure that units and staff organizations legally conducting intelligence activities do not infringe on or violate the rights of US persons while obtaining the intelligence information required to protect national security.

A2.2. A US person is: A United States Citizen, an alien known by the DOD component concerned to be a permanent resident alien, an unincorporated association substantially composed of US citizens or permanent resident aliens, or a corporation incorporated in the US unless it is directed and controlled by a foreign government or governments.

A2.3. Collection of information about US persons:

A2.3.1. Members of AFSPC are authorized to collect information on US persons only with the individuals consent, through information made available to the public, or to complete routine administrative actions.

A2.3.2. Members of AFSPC are not authorized to conduct the following activities, for which it has no mission:

A2.3.2.1. Electronic Surveillance of US persons.

A2.3.2.2. Any type of concealed mechanical, optical, or electronic monitoring of US persons.

A2.3.2.3. Physical search of US persons, except as directed by the Commander who has the authority to order searches for counterintelligence purposes.

A2.3.2.4. Physical surveillance of US persons.

A2.3.2.5. Undisclosed participation in any organization for the purpose of collecting intelligence/counterintelligence or any other data collection for the US Government or its agencies.

A2.3.2.6. Searches and/or unauthorized opening of the mail of US persons.

A2.3.2.7. Undisclosed contracting with academic institutions, commercial organizations, private institutions, or private individuals.

A2.3.2.8. Experimentation on human subjects for intelligence purposes.

A2.4. Retention/dissemination of information about US persons: Information collected by any means listed in paragraph 3.2 is unlawful, and will not be retained or disseminated by AFSPC personnel.

A2.5. Assistance to federal, state and local law enforcement agencies can be rendered under the following circumstances:

A2.5.1. Investigation for preventing clandestine intelligence activities by foreign powers, international narcotics' activities, or international terrorist activities.

A2.5.2. Protecting DOD employees, information, property and facilities.

A2.5.3. Preventing, detecting or investigation other violations of the law providing none of the activities listed in paragraph 3.2 or any other unlawful activities are conducted.

A2.6. My responsibility is to report all violations to the Intelligence Oversight Monitor at AFSPC/IN. In cases where I believe that my DOD component, including this office, has violated any provisions of Intelligence Oversight regulations, I am required to report the matter as soon as possible to the HQ AFSPC/IG.
